

Initiations to the Divine Mothers: Reclaiming Your Sacred Source

A Workshop Series for Women

During this powerful workshop series you'll be given the opportunity and tools to rise to new levels of awareness and consciousness through heartfelt connection and Initiations to The Divine Mothers. The Divine Mothers are the Feminine expression of God/Source. Through Initiations, Journeys, Attunements and active participation a pathway will be cleared to allow full reconnection and remembrance with Source. We as women hold the container or the well to allow the Divine Masculine to return to the planet. The Divine Mothers wish to pave the way for the graceful return of the Christed Masculine energies that will exist within you at the time of the 2012 shift. Participation in this workshop series provides an accelerated path for those women who are ready, to release old outdated energies, behaviors, thoughts and patterns associated with the feminine and masculine energies within you.

Are you ready to embrace and embody your own Sacred Union with Source and actively participate in creating the New Earth?

Divine Mothers of Destruction and Death

During the first workshop you'll be introduced and attuned to the energies of Kali Ma, Durga, Saraswati and Ta Ma. It's important to first destroy any outdated energies that no longer serve you. Once they are destroyed you are ready to be rebirthed into the Living Goddess or Divine Mother that you are.

Divine Mothers of Creation

In the second workshop you'll be introduced and attuned to Sophia, Lady Nada, Isis and Green Tara. These Divine Mothers will refine the release of old patterns while also recreating and resurrecting the life of your dreams as the Living Goddess or Divine Mother.

Divine Mothers of Compassion and Love

In the third workshop you'll be introduced and attuned to the energies of Mother Mary, Quan Yin, Grandmother Anna and White Tara. These are Divine Mothers of love, mercy and compassion. Love is the glue that holds the fabric of creation together. The energies of compassion and love will sustain and solidify the changes you've made during the first two workshops and will continue to pave the way toward greater connection with Source as the Living Goddess and Divine Mother.
